The total required hours are 33, although the REQUIRED CLASSES are only Financial, Managerial, Tax and Audit… you have some flexibility in meeting the rest of the hours in accounting. As a practical matter, you won’t get through the CPA exam without Intermediate I &II and Advanced. So the choices really come down to whether to take two tax classes, a FSA class or not and how much distance learning you can manage.